Bespoke lighting and furniture

Atelier de Troupe is an international lighting and furniture brand based in Los Angeles and New York. Our bespoke offerings cater to designers and architects for their hospitality projects.

As a design company we have a vast knowledge of the world's design history and can help create original designs for our clients, based on references of different past eras to our current days and can recreate a "vintage" look. We take on contemporary design concepts conceived by our clients and bring them to life.

Exquisite craftsmanship, natural materials And responsible production methods

Our passion for design and our constant search for exquisite craftsmanship, the use of natural materials and responsible production methods, makes us a reliable design partner with competitive evaluations. All of our bespoke pieces are made by our experienced manufacturers in Los Angeles, the US and Mexico, with a firm belief in lasting quality.

Individually tailored experience

Working closely with the interior trade and collaborating with design professionals throughout the specification and design process, we offer a range of custom services and products, providing the resources for an individually tailored experience.
